>To whom it may concern,

> As a frequent traveller to Britain I trully hope that the DoT >approves the alliance between BA and AA. The proposed alliance would be >extremely beneficial to me and other travellers alike. The alliance would >cut travel time through the UK and also it would help to reduce airfares. It >would be unfair it the alliance between BA and AA was not approved since the >alliances between Air France/Delta, United/Lufthansa/BMI/SAS/Austrian, and >Northwest/KLM have been approved. I do hope that BA and AA are given the >same opportunities as the other alliances.

Good Luck!
